DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
Washington

February 10, 1950

25X1A

Dear [redacted]

As I indicated to you in our recent conversations, the Department of State is prepared to commence immediately the distribution to the Central Intelligence Agency of a second copy of the Department's country policy statements. This copy, which would be sent in addition to the one now being supplied to Admiral Hillenkoetter for the immediate use of the Director of CIA, would be solely for the information and use of appropriate officers within ORE.

In accordance with our agreement, this second copy will be transmitted directly to you as Chief of the Division of Publications, ORE, and all records and files of the statements will be retained in your office. Individual policy statements may be made available to the senior officers within ORE working upon the particular country concerned. The complete file in no case will be made available outside your office or to persons other than the chief of ORE and officers within your own office, and the statements will not be cited or mentioned in any discussions with other government departments without the express permission of the Policy Reports Staff of the Department of State.

The regulations under which these statements are produced require that old issues be returned to the Department of State upon the receipt of each new revision. Upon the issuance of each revision we will therefore request your office to return the previous copy of the same statement.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

ROBERT G. BARNES
Robert G. Barnes
